

An independant media is essential to the democratic process. I urge you to keep the current restrictions in place to prevent futher media consolidation. Save our public airways .